

If this forbearance is granted, the small ISPs and CLECs will be a thing of the past. I will be forced to lay off my employees and close my door. The large phone companies are trying to run us out of business. They steal my customers anytime I call to see if a customer qualifies for DSL they tell me they don't qualify then the next day they hook them up under their own ISP. They already have an advantage now they want it all.